OLD BUSINESS:

Item No.	Item of Discussion
Oct. 1.1	All monies from the proceeds of the Follies 2019 Show is going to the Children’s Foundation not to Follies Guild. Make sure you say that when selling.
Oct. 1.2	Finance Committee – Christi Maroney, Sandy Towne, Karen Wade, Beth Stipe from the Community Foundation. They went over our Bylaws and Beth suggested we combine all our accounts and have 1 checking account and 1 savings account and any money we make over the three years of raising funds of wreath sales, spring fling monies and Follies Shows go to the Children’s Foundation. Possibly keep all monies into the Savings account to earn more interest and then transfer money to the checking account for paying invoices. Colleen mentioned our bylaws are already accommodating the 3 accounts. Beth will come talk to all of us in March or April and we can listen to her thoughts about what to do with our funds. Christi mentioned it’s exciting and historic and we are all excited to move forward. Christi and Beth will re-do our funds request form.
Oct. 1.3	Connie said SELL, SELL, SELL for Follies. We are WAY behind in selling and raising money from the last Follies show. Ultimately the ticket sales pay for the show and we don’t want to take away from the Follies Show to pay for the show. Pre-Sale will be early November and then to the public in December. We are about $6,000.00 behind from last Follies Show. Thursday Night Opening night and Saturday Matinee are still NOT sold and MUST sell ASAP! Please do Cindy Seysters 20 letter challenge. FOLLOW UP!
Oct. 1.4	Christmas Party – are we doing a Silent Auction again. Robin mentioned an idea for an auction that is centered around Christmas Goodies and it goes over very well. Whether it’s food or gifts it works well. Katie Tackman mentioned taste samples and then schedule when you want that gift. Possibly a coffee basket or a toy basket or a gift that can be given. Ideas are welcome. Karen and Robin made a motion we do the silent auction again this year. We did the gift exchange and a donation for Children’s Home Society adopting a family plus the silent auction. Three things were happening at this party. Belinda asked about the stuff a sack and nobody knew. Christi will ask Cindy Seyster. Karen and Robin amended the motion to hold the silent auction and just bring something for a cause TBD (children oriented) Colleen 2nd this motion, discussion and all in favor, motion passed.
Oct. 1.5	Meeting in January will be held at the PAC if at all due to rehearsals.

NEW BUSINESS:

Item No.	Item of Discussion
Nov. 1.1	Funds Requests – Cindy Seyster mentioned Eva Lauve and Christy Binge are coaches for the girls volleyball team and there are 23 girls on the team and there are about 5 to 10 girls that come from pretty rough families and have not eaten by the time they get to practice or their games. You can donate old (not being used) bowling balls to Eastmont Lanes for the girls. They are also state champions. Cindy made a motion to give a $250.00 visa card to Christy Binge and she can give money to the girls for either dinner or a bowling ball. Victoria Seabeck mentioned $250.00 is too low. The season goes November, December and January. Christy Binge is happy to show receipts if we need them but she would be accountable and would take care of these girls. Cindy mentioned showing support by going to some of the games too. Christi

	Maroney had Cindy and Christy step out of the room while we had discussion. Ruby 2nd the motioned, motion passed.
Nov. 1.2	Sue Baker – Director of CASA for the past 24 years and she will be retiring this year. Connie said in 2010, they were the beneficiary from our Follies show and it was used as seed money for a program CASA started. They still have some of our money from that donation and Sue talked about what it's meant to CASA to have the funds. CASA stands for Court Appointed Special Advocate. They currently serve about 205 kids per year - some are drug addicted, most are all from poverty homes and some are homeless. Sue started a program where kids could get clothes and tennis shoes and extra things kids need. They made a fund called 'The Follies Fund' and people can contribute to that and they take no money from that fund for expenses to run CASA. Sue also talked about the Christmas Sock project and it started about 20 years ago and every year there are socks filled for kids. Every year at Christmas time they set up in the basement of the Community Foundation Center called Santa Central. You can drop off donations at 431 Douglas Street or you can call their office at (509) 662-7350 or go to their email info@CDSASA.org . Les Schwab toy drive will be giving to CASA – donations by December 12, 2018. Also, you can give gift cards such as movies, Target, coffee shops.
Nov. 1.3	Cindy spoke about – Chelsea Lenker the Wenatchee Valley Stuff-A-Sackpack Program. Cindy has been in contact with her and there is now a website go to www.stuffasackpack.com . Cindy made a motion to give $500.00 to the life changing event fund which goes to approximately 6-9 kids through Stuff-A-Sackpack Program, Connie 2 nd the motion, Katie asked to amend the motion to give $700.00 instead of $500.00 to the life changing event fund through Stuff-A-Sackpack Program, Traci Thompson 2nd the amendment, motion passed.
Nov. 1.4	Reminder – SELL, SELL, SELL sponsorships.
Nov. 1.5	Wreath money and sales were turned in tonight and Robin will get the dollar amount out. 11 am pick up at Ginny Heintz's home 1210 - 2nd Street SE, East Wenatchee
Nov. 1.6	Victoria Seabeck and Bealinda Tidd will get together on PR for our Follies Show. Bealinda will be adding to all the local calendars of events along with NWC Life and iFiber along with radio stations. Sunny FM (Dave Harold) will do a 60 second and 30 second PSAs which will go on 6 stations. We will have 60 ads running. Those will be split between December 22 and January 5 for the Follies Kick Off and then Jan. 14 through the run of the show for the actual Follies Show.
Nov. 1.7	Kick-off – Saturday, January 5 no ticket is needed and it is free. All Follies Guild Members should be present at the Kick Off Party on January 5 – NO Little Black Dress but bring a Boa.
